Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.

Membership • Record • Book.

SUGGESTIONS.

1st. The Constitution should be written in (or pasted in when printed) on the first blank pages, allowing one or two pages at the end for possible amendments; then follow with the signatures of the members as they join the Society.

2d. Number each member's name from 1 up, using only one line for number of the name and address.

3d. Having allowed as many pages for the Constitution and Membership as is considered advisable, commence the records of the meetings, remembering that only a brief record of business transactions is necessary. (It would be preferable to use another plain ruled blank-book for this purpose instead.)

4th. The blanks in the latter part of the book are designed for systematic arrangement of the membership. Place the name and number of each member under the appropriate heading, "Active," "Associate," or "Honorary," as the case may be, with dates. Use the last three columns, "Month, Day, Year," in case of death, absence, or transfer to another form of membership, as from "Active" to "Honorary."

5th. When the "absent" members return, write "yes" opposite the names in the column marked "Returned."

6th. "Dismissed Members" are divided into two classes: first, those who change their residence; and second, those who are dismissed for cause.

7th. MEMBERSHIP SCHEDULE.—Under this heading place monthly or quarterly totals. The number of members "Dismissed" and "Deceased" subtracted from the sum of the others will leave the "Total" membership of the Society.

NEW ENGLAND YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS

Model Constitution.

Article I.—Name.

This society shall be called the Worcester Friends Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.

Article II.—Object.

Its object shall be to enlarge the kingdom of the master, to stimulate both its members and others to lives of christian activity and purity, and to promote attachment and loyalty to the church.

Article III.—Membership.

1. The Members shall consist of three classes, Active, Associate, and Affiliated.
2. Active Members. The active members of this society shall consist of all ~~young~~ persons who believe themselves to be Christians, and who sincerely desire to accomplish the objects above specified. Voting powers shall be vested only in the active members.

3. Associate Members. All young persons of worthy character, who are not at present willing to be considered decided Christians, may become associate members of this society. They shall have the special prayers and sympathy of the active members, but shall be excused from taking part in the prayer meeting. It is expected that all associate members will habitually attend the prayer meetings, and that they will in time become active members, and the society will work to this end.

4. Affiliated Members. All persons who, though no longer young, are still interested in the society, and wish to have some connection with it, though they cannot regularly attend the meetings, may become affiliated members. Their names shall be kept upon the list under the appropriate heading, but shall not be called at the roll-call meeting.

It is understood that the society may look to the affiliated members for financial and moral support in all worthy efforts.

5. These different persons shall become members, upon being elected by the society, after carefully examining the Constitution, & upon signing their names to it, thereby pledging themselves to live up to its requirements.

Article IV.–Officers.

1. The officers of this society shall be a President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall be chosen from among the active members of the society.

2. There shall also be a Lookout Committee, a Prayer-Meeting Committee, a Social Committee, and such other committees as the local needs of each society may require, each consisting of three or more active members. There shall also be an Executive Committee, as provided in Article VI.

Article V.—Duties of Officers.

1. President.—The President of the society shall perform the duties usually pertaining to that office. He shall have especial watch over the interests of the society, & it shall be his care to see that the different committees perform the duties devolving upon them.

2. Vice-President. The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in his absence.

4 * 3. Corresponding Secretary.—It shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary to keep the local society in communication with the United Society, and with other local societies, and to present to his own society such matters of interest as may come from the United Society, from other local societies, and from other authorized sources of Christian Endeavor. This office shall be permanent, and the name forwarded to the United Society.

4. Recording Secretary.- It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to keep a record of the members, and to correct it from time to time, as may be necessary, and to obtain the signature of each newly elected member to the Constitution; also to correspond with absent members, and inform them of their standing in the society; also to keep correct minutes of all business meetings of the society; also to notify all persons elected to office or to committees, and to do so in writing if necessary.

5. Treasurer.- It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to safely keep all money belonging to the society, and to pay out only such sums as shall be voted by the society.

Article VI. – Duties of Committees.

2 X Look out Committee. – It shall be the duty of this committee to bring new members into the society, to introduce them to the work and to the other members, and to affectionately look after and reclaim any that seem indifferent to their duties, as outlined in the pledge. This committee shall also, by personal investigation, satisfy itself of the fitness of young persons to become members of this society, and shall propose their names at least one week before their election to membership.

1 X Prayer-Meeting Committee. – It shall be the duty of this committee to have in charge the prayer meeting, and to see that a topic is assigned and a leader appointed for every meeting, and to do what it can to secure faithfulness to the prayer meeting pledge.

3 Social Committee. – It shall be the duty of this committee to promote the social interests of the society by welcoming strangers to the meeting, and by providing for the mutual acquaintance of the members by occasional sociables, for which any appropriate entertainment of which the Council approves may be provided.

4. Executive Committee. - This committee shall consist of the officers of the society, and the chairmen of the various committees. All matters of business requiring debate shall be brought before this committee, and by it reported either favorably or adversely to the society. All discussion of proposed measures shall take place before this committee, and not before the society. Recommendations concerning the finances of the society shall also originate with this committee.

(G)

5. Each committee, except the Executive, shall make a report in writing to the society, at the monthly business meetings, concerning the work of the past month.

Passage 12.

Article VII.—The Prayer Meeting.

1. All the active members shall be present at every meeting, unless detained by some absolute necessity, and each active member shall take some part, however slight, in every meeting. To the above all the active members shall pledge themselves, understanding by "absolute necessity" some reason for absence which can conscientiously be given to their Master, Jesus Christ. The meeting shall be held one hour, and at the close some time may be taken for introduction and social intercourse if desired.

2. Once each month a consecration or experience meeting shall be held, at which each active member may speak concerning his progress in the Christian life, or renew his vows of consecration. If any one chooses, he can express his feelings by an appropriate verse of Scripture or other quotations.

3. At each consecration or experience meeting the roll shall be called, and the responses of the active members who are present shall be considered as a renewed expression of allegiance to Christ. It is expected that, if any one is obliged to be absent from this meeting, he will send a request to be excused by some one who attends.

4. If any active member of this society is absent from this monthly meeting, and fails to send an excuse, the Lookout Committee is expected to take the name of such a one and in a kind and brotherly spirit ascertain the reason for the absence. If any active member of the society is absent and unexcused from three consecutive monthly meetings, such a one ceases to be a member of the society, and his name shall be stricken from the list of members.

Article VIII.—Business Meetings & Elections.

1. Business meetings may be held at the close of the prayer meeting or at any other time in accordance with the call of the President.

2. An election of the officers & committees shall be held every six months viz:- January & July. Names may be proposed by a Nominating Committee appointed by the President.

Article X.—Withdrawals.

Any member who may wish to withdraw from the society shall state the reason in writing to the Executive Committee, and if these reasons seem sufficient, he may be allowed to withdraw.

Article XI.—Miscellaneous.

1. Any other committees may be added and duties assumed by this society, which in the future may seem best.

Amendment.

[The following amendment was proposed by Rev. F. E. Clark, & recommended to the societies by vote of the National Convention held in Chicago, July 5-8, 1886.]

Since it would in the end defeat the very object of our organization if the older active members, who have been trained in the society for usefulness in the church, should remain content with fulfilling their pledge to the society only, therefore it is expected that these older members, when it shall become impossible for them to attend the weekly prayer meetings, shall be transferred to the affiliate membership of the society, if previously faithful to their vows as active members. This transfer, however, shall be made with the understanding that the obligations for faithful service shall still be binding upon them in the regular church prayer meeting. It should be left to the Lookout Committee, to see that the transfer of membership is made as occasion requires. Special pains shall also be taken to see that a share of the duties and responsibilities, both of the prayer meeting and of the general work of the society, shall be done by the younger members. This constitution may be amended by a two thirds vote of the members present, providing that notice of such amendment be given in writing to be recorded at least one week before the amendment is acted upon.

6. Information Committee; It shall be the duty of this committee to gather information concerning Endeavorers or Endeavor work, in all parts of the world, and to report the same. For this purpose, five minutes shall be set aside at the beginning of each meeting.

Sunday School Committee; It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to bring into the Sunday School those who do not attend elsewhere, and to co-operate with the Superintendent and officers of the school in any ways which they may suggest for the benefit of the Sunday School.

8 Calling Committee: It shall be the duty of this committee to have a special care for those among the young people who do not feel at home in the Church, to call on them, and to remind others when calls should be made.

9 Missionary Committee: It shall be the duty of this committee to provide for occasional missionary meetings, to interest the members of the society in all ways in missionary topics, and to aid in any manner which may seem practicable, the cause of home and foreign missions.

10 Flower Committee: It shall be the duty of this committee to provide flowers for the pulpit, and to distribute them to the sick at the close of the Sabbath services.

11 Temperance Committee. It shall be the duty of this committee to do what may be deemed best to promote temperance principles and sentiment among the members of the society.

the revised pledge:-

"Trusting in the Lord Jesus for strength"
I promise Him that just so far as I know how I will strive, to live a Christian life, to pray to Him and read the Bible daily, and to do whatever He would like I to have me do.

Unless prevented by a reason which I can conscientiously give my Master Jesus Christ, I will attend the weekly prayer meeting, with a willingness to perform whatever service he may require of me.
